We may fail to act or delay in acting on a payment order without any liability because of legal constraint, your negligence, interruption of communication facilities, equipment failure, war, emergency conditions, or the circumstances beyond our control. You may also fail to send or delay in sending a payment order without any liability if sending the order would violate any guideline, rule, or regulation of any government authority.

We are not liable for consequential, special, or exemplary damages or losses of any kind.

You have no right to cancel or amend this payment order. If you ask us to cancel or amend it, we may make a reasonable effort to act on your behalf. But we are not liable to you if for any reason this payment order is not amended or canceled. You agree to reimburse us for any costs, losses, or damages that we incur in connection with your request to amend or cancel the payment order.

If we try to cancel this funds transfer, we do not have to refund your money until we determine that the beneficiary has not received the money and the money is returned to us. If we return your money, the refund may not be equal to the amount of the original payment order. An example, the amounts may be different because of a charge other banks may impose to return the funds transfer.

We have cut off times for processing payment orders. Orders received prior to 12:00 pm (noon, Pacific Time) will be same day processed. If you give us this payment order after the cutoff time, we may treat the payment order as if we received it on our next business day. Funds transfer business days will include all normal business days of the Interfaith Federal Credit Union.

You must accurately identify beneficiaries of your payment order. If you give us the name and account number of a beneficiary, we and other banks may process the payment order based on the account number alone, even though the member may identify a person other than the beneficiary named. If you give us the name and identifying number of a bank, we and other banks may process the payment order on the bank’s identifying number alone, even though the number may identify a bank other than the bank named. In these cases, you are still obligated to pay us the amount of the payment order.

Fedwire is the funds transfer system of the U.S. Federal Reserve Banks. We or other banks involved may use Fedwire to do the funds transfer. You must send us written notice, including a statement of relevant facts, within 14 calendar days after you receive the first account statement on which any unauthorized or erroneous debit to your account, or any other discrepancies between your record and ours appear. If you fail to notify us within this 14-day period, we are not liable, obligated to compensate you, for any loss of interest or interest equivalent because of an unauthorized or erroneous debit.
